COUNTRIES ACROSS THE ATLANTIC HAVE NO DESIRE FOR WAR.

FREDERICK W. HOLLS' VIEW

Present Feeling Regarding America is as a Whole Unfriendly—Talk About Combination of the Powers Against Us More Fanciful Than Real—Merely a Cover for an Increase in the Tariffs.

London, Aug. 14.—Frederick W. Holls, United States member of the international court of arbitration at The Hague, who is in London after prolonged visits to St. Petersburg, Berlin and Vienna, sails for New York this week. In talking of his impressions of the relations between the European powers and America, Mr. Holls said:

"No European people wants war any more than the Americans. Notwithstanding all appearances to the contrary, public opinion is today the greatest European power. Of course, it would be folly to say there is no longer danger of war, for popular excitement in any one quarter may upset all calculations. Still, the existence of a permanent tribunal to decide international disputes, the well recognized economic breakdown which war means for belligerents, the lessons of the Boer war, and the frightful fiasco in China, all these elements of the situation are working powerfully for peace.

"The present feeling in Europe regarding the United States cannot be characterized in one phrase. That it is not everywhere friendly must, I fear, be admitted. But this is not strange. The strength and prosperity of the great, peaceful, 'unmilitary' republic is not pleasing to its opponents and critics of our institutions. Then there is natural jealousy in commercial and industrial circles of our economic progress. But it should be remembered that governments of all forms are averse to having their foreign policy dictated by theorists, or even by exporters and manufacturers. Any policy which even seems to be dictated by class instead of by the highest interests of the whole people is doomed to failure by its inherent weakness. Hence, I believe it is a long way from commercial jealousy and the extended articles in the press about the 'American danger' to political or even economic hostility.

"The talk about a combination of the European powers against the United States is fanciful and impracticable. They have greater causes for quarrels among themselves than any of them has against the United States. All talk to the contrary in parliaments and in the press, is, in my opinion, merely a cover for an increase in tariffs by the particular powers."

ARBITRATION IMPOSSIBLE.

Secretary Bishop Reports to Governor Nash of Ohio.

Columbus, O., Aug. 14.—Secretary Joseph Bishop of the state board of arbitration, who has been in Pittsburgh for the past week trying to secure a settlement of the steel workers' strike, arrived home during the day and immediately reported the situation to Governor Nash. Mr. Bishop says:

"The strike is in a condition now that makes arbitration for the present impossible. I may go back to Pittsburgh, but I don't expect to stay, that is to say, I have no set time for returning. So far as I know, there are no negotiations in Pittsburgh looking to a settlement of the strike."

AFTER AGRICULTURAL EXPERTS

Agent of Victorian Government Has Been Visiting This Country.

Washington, Aug. 14.—James M. Sinclair, an agent of the Victorian government, has been in this country seeking agricultural experts and agricultural data for his government, and has just sailed for home. He carries with him the names of two American agriculturalists from whom a choice will be made for appointment as director of agriculture of that government. These are Professor B. T. Galloway, now director of the seed and plant bureau of the department of agriculture here, and W. M. Hays of the Minnesota state agricultural college.

GERMANY'S TRADE GROWING.

Her Exports to America Increased Nearly $2,000,000 Last Year.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Consul General Mason, at Berlin, has transmitted to the state department a statement showing the value of exports to the United States from Germany for the fiscal years ended June 30, 1900 and 1901, respectively. It gives the exports by cities and shows that for the year 1900 goods to the value of $98,312,159 were exported from Germany to the United States, while for the period ended June 30, 1901, goods to the value of $99,887,013 were exported from Germany, an increase over 1900 of $1,574,854.

STILL IN THE BALANCE

NEITHER SIDE IN THE STEEL STRIKE MAKES A DECISIVE MOVE.

STRIKERS MAKE SOME GAINS

The Main Advantage Is Still With the Mill Owners—Number of Men Out Placed at Sixty-two Thousand. Many Have Found Work in Independent Plants or at Other Occupations—All Sore at Western Men.

Pittsburg, Aug. 14.—Neither side moved decisively during the day on the great industrial conflict between employers and employees in the steel trade, and the result is still in the balance. The strikers made gains at Pittsburg, McKeesport, Wheeling and Bellaire, in the past 24 hours, but in the main the advantage is still with the mill owners. Both sides claim to be preparing moves that will bring confusion to opponents, but neither side has shown its hand. The general situation can be briefly summarized as follows:

Ten men, five of them skilled, quit at the lower Union mill of the Carnegie company in Pittsburg and joined the strikers. Their defection represented the first break in the Carnegie forces of more than 15,000 men. The strikers were jubilant over the incident, but the company claims to have filled their places at once and there will be no more desertions at any of the plants.

The Bellaire plant, at which the men struck on Sunday, has finally closed down. When another start will be made is problematical. Several hundred boys, employed at the National tube works at McKeesport, went out during the night and day and their action materially aided the efforts of the strikers to finally tie the plant up. The works are going ahead short handed, but the ranks of the workers are thinning and the supply of material is limited. The strikers made gains at Wheeling and the steel officials admitted that Benwood would be closed down. Clark's mill here is moving along full handed, Lindsay & McCutcheon's is operating with a small crew and the managers are planning to open Painter's mill and increase the force at Lindsay & McCutcheon's. A of the men who struck at Painter's is expected but the strike managers deny that one will occur. Another break is reported as possible at New Castle, but there are as yet no positive indications of it. The American Tin Plate company has a small force at the Crescent plant in Cleveland and is also planning resumption at other points with non-union men. The Steel corporation has ordered that the Chartiers plant at Carnegie be dismantled and removed to Leechburg.

So far good order has prevailed, although the steel officials assert that there has been intimidation at Wheeling, McKeesport and Pittsburg. The number of men out as a result of the strike orders is placed at 62,000. Many strikers have found work in independent mills or at other occupations and many are idle merely because the skilled men are out.

The Steel corporation held its own at Chicago, Joliet, Bayview, Youngstown, Columbus, the Kiskimuntus Valley and the Carnegie group with the exception of the instance named. The strikers are considering plans for breaking the decision of Chicago, Joliet and Bayview to stand with the steel companies, but what they plan to do has not been made clear. They are charging some of the Western men with both dishonesty and disloyalty, and there is a general desire among members of the Amalgamated association here for some form of inquiry.

HAS FULL POWER.

Secretary Tighe of the Amalgamated Association in Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—Without notification to the officers or members of the Amalgamated association in South Chicago, Michael F. Tighe, assistant secretary of the national body, has arrived in Chicago. Secretary Tighe comes clothed with all the necessary powers and prerogatives of President T. J. Shaffer, whose personal representative he is. He will confer with the principal local officers and order a special joint meeting of the two lodges. The purpose of the meeting has not been announced, but Secretary Tighe does not deny that a message from President Shaffer will be read at that meeting and an attempt will be made to have the vote of last Sunday reconsidered. Tighe will also visit Milwaukee and Joliet.

Resolution of Sympathy Introduced. Austin, Tex., Aug. 14.—A resolution was introduced in the state legislature pledging moral and financial support to the steel strikers and requesting members to contribute $1 per day of their salaries to aid the strikers. The resolution went over.

Roosevelt Starts East.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Aug. 14.—Vice President Roosevelt has left here for the east after a stay of 11 days in and around Colorado Springs. He will stop at Hutchinson, Kan., where he will be a guest at the Grand Army reunion.

ARE LOOKING WESTWARD.

Another Rush of Immigration Expected Next Spring.

Portland, Or., Aug. 14.—President C. S. Mellen of the Northern Pacific has arrived here. Speaking of the inducements which will be offered to bring immigrants into the Northwest, he said:

"Many Easterners are turning their attention Westward, and a rush of immigration will no doubt begin next spring. What inducements the roads will make to stimulate the travel of homeseekers, I cannot say at this time, but I suppose something will be done in this direction."

REMEMBERED EMPLOYES.

General Palmer of Colorado Springs Distributes Railroad Stock.

Colorado Springs, Aug. 14.—The fact has just come to light that General W. J. Palmer of this city, when he sold his interest in the Rio Grande Western railroad for $6,000,000 about three months ago, made a distribution of 10,000 shares of the stock of the company, then at 104, among the employees of the road, amounting in all to more than $1,000,000. Each employee, from section foreman to general manager, was remembered. Vice President Dodge receiving more than $100,000 worth of stock.

DEPORTED BY THE BRITISH.

Dr. Conroy of Chicago Files a Claim for Heavy Damages.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—Dr. A. E. Conroy of Chicago, who has presented a claim for $35,000 to the British government for losses sustained in the Transvaal by British confiscation of his hospital equipment, was with the Irish ambulance corps that joined the Boers. Dr. Conroy asserts that he remained true to his neutrality oath as a Red Cross physician and that his equipment was seized under orders from General Ian Hamilton and that he, himself, was deported.

The Grant at Manila.

Washington, Aug. 14.—A cablegram from General Chaffee announces the arrival of the transport Grant at Manila with all well on board. Among the passengers was General Ludington, chief quartermaster.

Signing of the Protocol.

Peking, Aug. 14.—It is expected that the protocol will be signed in a day or two. Ying Chang, formerly director of the Tien Tsin naval school, has been appointed Chinese minister to Germany.

Rain Will Not Help Much.

Indianapolis, Aug. 14.—State Statistician Johnson says that from observations he has made he believes the corn crop in Indiana is practically beyond redemption. "Rain," said he, "would be of little benefit now."

William H. Hinrichson Ill.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 14.—Hon. William H. Hinrichson, former secretary of state of Illinois and former congressman from the Sixteenth district, is critically ill at his home in Jacksonville.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The Duke and Duchess of York have arrived at Durban, Natal.

The Peruvian chamber of deputies has adopted a resolution censuring the cabinet by a majority of one vote.

The German crown prince, Frederick William, will start for London this week on a visit, traveling incognito.

George Dolinski, sentenced to be hanged in Chicago next Friday for the murder of his brother-in-law, has been reprieved by Governor Yates until Oct. 11.

BEAT THE CUSTOMS.

Serious Charge Against New York Silk Importers.

New York, Aug. 14.—Appraiser Wakeman said that he had called in the goods of a number of silk importing houses and was making an examination to see whether the goods had been properly appraised. This is because of a belief that certain examiners in the employ of the government have been making large sums of money from the importers by passing Japanese silks with undervaluations. If the undervaluation and underweighting have been practiced steadily, as alleged, the government has been defrauded of large sums of money. One examiner is alleged to have received $3,000 a year from silk importing firms, another was sent to Europe and another had come into possession of valuable real estate.

REPORTS REGARDING COLOMBIA'S REVOLUTION REACH WASHINGTON.

MUCH FIGHTING GOING ON

Guerrillas Attack Towns Between Colon and Panama—Adherents of Former President Imprisoned for Aiding the Insurrection—General Uribe Reported Killed in Venezuela. Was Helping Rebel Invaders.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The state department has received mail advices from three different quarters in Colombia, all showing revolutionary movements in progress and a rather serious condition of affairs. Both termini of the Panama railway route were heard from. Consul General Gudgeon writing from Panama as to a revolutionary attack on nearby towns and Consul Malmros, at Colon, reporting that guerrilla fighting had been going on at different points between Colon and Panama. At the same time, Minister Hart wrote from the capital of Colombia as to the arrest and imprisonment of prominent adherents of the former president, Dr. Sanclemente, as they were suspected of seeking to have the Nationalist organization join with the Liberals, who are said to be showing increased strength and activity in a revolutionary movement. Although these letters have taken some time to come forward, yet they give the state department about the best and the only definite information that is at hand as to the condition of affairs. Mr. Gudgeon's letter speaks of a revolutionary raid on July 26 and 27, in which an alcalde and several policemen were made prisoners and some arms and provisions captured. The navy department received word during the day of the sailing of the Iowa from Puget sound for San Francisco, whence she will go to Panama, if her services are required there.

There is an entire lack of official information here concerning the progress of affairs in Venezuela. Whether the Colombian minister actually has left Venezuela, as reported in a press dispatch from Willemstad, is not known here. The departure of the minister would be in line with what was foreshadowed when the American charge d'affaires, Mr. Russell, of Venezuela, asked for authority to represent Colombia in case the minister there withdrew.

GENERALLY DISCREDITED.

General Uribe-Uribe Reported to Have Been Killed in Battle.

New York, Aug. 14.—The Times says:

According to El Conservador, a semi-official newspaper, published at Barranquilla, Colombia, General Rafael Uribe-Uribe was killed at San Cristobal, Venezuela, on July 27, while fighting with the Venezuelan troops against the Colombian invaders.

El Conservador's authority for this report is a message sent by General Iguaran, in charge of the Colombian government forces at Riohacha to the commander-in-chief at Barranquilla. The Colombians engaged in the fight at San Cristobal were led by Dr. Rangel Carbinas.

Much excitement was caused among Colombians here by the report. The friends of General Uribe-Uribe consider it significant that the Colombian government has not sent the news by cable to its representatives, for the Colombian consulate here has not been officially notified. While there is nothing definite on which to base a denial of the report, the general's friends discredit it on the ground that several times during the rebellion a year ago General Uribe was declared killed in battle.

GIVEN TO THE INVADER.

Cadillac Fouls the Challenger in the Third International Yacht Race.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—William Hale Thompson, Cadillac's skipper, presented invader with the third race of the international yachting match for the Canada's cup by fouling the Canadian boat at the start in full view of the judges and most of the spectators. Captain Jarvis of the invader declined to fly his protest flag, but the judges steamed after Cadillac and notified Captain Thompson that they disqualified his boat, whereupon Cadillac was gybed around and left the race. Invader sailed over the course and was raced by Milwaukee, the Oshkosh boat that so hotly contested with Cadillac the honor of defending the cup, and the sailing match was followed all around the triangular course of 21 nautical miles by the usual fleet of steam and sailing yachts. Invader beat the Oshkosh boat handsomely at all points of sailing in a light wind.

Mr. Rockhill Leaves Soon.

London, Aug. 14.—"Mr. Rockhill, the United States special commissioner, will leave Peking in a few days," says a dispatch to The Times from the Chinese capital. "The French government, with characteristic courtesy, has offered the cruiser Pascal to convey him to Japan, whence he will proceed by steamer."

Marquis Ito Will Visit Us.

Yokohama, Aug. 14.—The doctors have ordered the Marquis Ito, the former premier, to take a sea voyage for his health. He is, consequently, going to America for a short stay.

FOR A LEPROUS COLONY.

Island of Barrie, South of Luzon, Has Been Recommended.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Some time ago a board of army officers was appointed to examine the Batanes islands, lying south of Luzon, with a view to the selection of an island for the segregation of lepers. The report of the board has been received at the war department. It recommends the island of Barrie, which is said to be uninhabited and of sufficient size, two miles by one, to accommodate the lepers of that district.

TO FIGHT SMALLPOX.

Health Officials of Three States Meet at Duluth.

Duluth, Aug. 14.—Health officials, state and county, from Minnesota, Northern Michigan and Wisconsin and representatives of lumber industries met here to discuss methods of battling with smallpox, which was prevalent in this section of the country last winter. Resolutions were drawn up. There were 6,300 cases in this state alone last fall, with but 29 deaths.

Sue the County for Damages.

Zanesville, O., Aug. 14.—Victor Delme, John F. Stover and Floyd Poling, who were assaulted a few days ago by striking brickmakers, at Roseville, have sued the county for $500 damages each, under the law giving victims of mob the right of action in counties in which riots occur.

There is an entire lack of official information here concerning the progress of affairs in Venezuela. Whether the Colombian minister actually has left Venezuela, as reported in a press dispatch from Willemstad, is not known here. The departure of the minister would be in line with what was foreshadowed when the American charge d'affaires, Mr. Russell, of Venezuela, asked for authority to represent Colombia in case the minister there withdrew.

GENERALLY DISCREDITED.

General Uribe-Uribe Reported to Have Been Killed in Battle.

New York, Aug. 14.—The Times says:

According to El Conservador, a semi-official newspaper, published at Barranquilla, Colombia, General Rafael Uribe-Uribe was killed at San Cristobal, Venezuela, on July 27, while fighting with the Venezuelan troops against the Colombian invaders.

El Conservador's authority for this report is a message sent by General Iguaran, in charge of the Colombian government forces at Riohacha to the commander-in-chief at Barranquilla. The Colombians engaged in the fight at San Cristobal were led by Dr. Rangel Carbinas.

Much excitement was caused among Colombians here by the report. The friends of General Uribe-Uribe consider it significant that the Colombian government has not sent the news by cable to its representatives, for the Colombian consulate here has not been officially notified. While there is nothing definite on which to base a denial of the report, the general's friends discredit it on the ground that several times during the rebellion a year ago General Uribe was declared killed in battle.

GIVEN TO THE INVADER.

Cadillac Fouls the Challenger in the Third International Yacht Race.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—William Hale Thompson, Cadillac's skipper, presented invader with the third race of the international yachting match for the Canada's cup by fouling the Canadian boat at the start in full view of the judges and most of the spectators. Captain Jarvis of the invader declined to fly his protest flag, but the judges steamed after Cadillac and notified Captain Thompson that they disqualified his boat, whereupon Cadillac was gybed around and left the race. Invader sailed over the course and was raced by Milwaukee, the Oshkosh boat that so hotly contested with Cadillac the honor of defending the cup, and the sailing match was followed all around the triangular course of 21 nautical miles by the usual fleet of steam and sailing yachts. Invader beat the Oshkosh boat handsomely at all points of sailing in a light wind.

Mr. Rockhill Leaves Soon.

London, Aug. 14.—"Mr. Rockhill, the United States special commissioner, will leave Peking in a few days," says a dispatch to The Times from the Chinese capital. "The French government, with characteristic courtesy, has offered the cruiser Pascal to convey him to Japan, whence he will proceed by steamer."

FOR A LEPER COLONY.

Island of Barrie, South of Luzon, Has Been Recommended.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Some time ago a board of army officers was appointed to examine the Batanes islands, lying south of Luzon, with a view to the selection of an island for the segregation of lepers. The report of the board has been received at the war department. It recommends the island of Barrie, which is said to be uninhabited and of sufficient size, two miles by one, to accommodate the lepers of that district.

COUNTRIES ACROSS THE ATLANTIC
HAVE NO DESIRE FOR WAR.

FREDERICK W. HOLLS' VIEW

Present Feeling Regarding America is as a Whole Unfriendly—Talk About Combination of the Powers Against Us More Fanciful Than Real—Merely a Cover for an Increase in the Tariffs.

London, Aug. 14.—Frederick W. Holls, United States member of the international court of arbitration at The Hague, who is in London after prolonged visits to St. Petersburg, Berlin and Vienna, sails for New York this week. In talking of his impressions of the relations between the European powers and America, Mr. Holls said:

"No European people wants war any more than the Americans. Notwithstanding all appearances to the contrary, public opinion is today the greatest European power. Of course, it would be folly to say there is no longer danger of war, for popular excitement in any one quarter may upset all calculations. Still, the existence of a permanent tribunal to decide international disputes, the well recognized economic breakdown which war now means for belligerents, the lessons of the Boer war, and the frightful fiasco in China, all these elements of the situation are working powerfully for peace.

"The present feeling in Europe regarding the United States cannot be characterized in one phrase. That it is not everywhere friendly must, I fear, be admitted. But this is not strange. The strength and prosperity of the great, peaceful, 'unmilitary' republic is not pleasing to its opponents and critics of our institutions. Then there is natural jealousy in commercial and industrial circles of our economic progress. But it should be remembered that governments of all forms are averse to having their foreign policy dictated by theorists, or even by exporters and manufacturers. Any policy which even seems to be dictated by class instead of by the highest interests of the whole people is doomed to failure by its inherent weakness. Hence, I believe it is a long way from commercial jealousy and the extended articles in the press about the 'American danger' to political or even economic hostility.

"The talk about a combination of the European powers against the United States is fanciful and impracticable. They have greater causes for quarrels among themselves than any of them has against the United States. All talk to the contrary in parliaments and in the press, is, in my opinion, merely a cover for an increase in tariffs by the particular powers."

ARBITRATION IMPOSSIBLE.

Secretary Bishop Reports to Governor Nash of Ohio.

Columbus, O., Aug. 14.—Secretary Joseph Bishop of the state board of arbitration, who has been in Pittsburgh for the past week trying to secure a settlement of the steel workers' strike, arrived home during the day and immediately reported the situation to Governor Nash. Mr. Bishop says:

"The strike is in a condition now that makes arbitration for the present impossible. I may go back to Pittsburgh, but I don't expect to stay, that is to say, I have no set time for returning. So far as I know, there are no negotiations in Pittsburgh looking to a settlement of the strike."

AFTER AGRICULTURAL EXPERTS

Agent of Victorian Government Has Been Visiting This Country.

Washington, Aug. 14.—James M. Sinclair, an agent of the Victorian government, has been in this country seeking agricultural experts and agricultural data for his government, and has just sailed for home. He carries with him the names of two American agriculturalists from whom a choice will be made for appointment as director of agriculture of that government. These are Professor B. T. Galloway, now director of the seed and plant bureau of the department of agriculture here, and W. M. Hays of the Minnesota state agricultural college.

GERMANY'S TRADE GROWING.

Her Exports to America Increased Nearly $2,000,000 Last Year.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Consul General Mason, at Berlin, has transmitted to the state department a statement showing the value of exports to the United States from Germany for the fiscal years ended June 30, 1900 and 1901, respectively. It gives the exports by cities and shows that for the year 1900 goods to the value of $98,312,159 were exported from Germany to the United States, while for the period ended June 30, 1901, goods to the value of $99,887,013 were exported from Germany, an increase over 1900 of $1,574,854.

STILL IN THE BALANCE

NEITHER SIDE IN THE STEEL STRIKE MAKES A DECISIVE MOVE.

STRIKERS MAKE SOME GAINS

The Main Advantage Is Still With the Mill Owners—Number of Men Out Placed at Sixty-two Thousand. Many Have Found Work in Independent Plants or at Other Occupations—All Sore at Western Men.

Pittsburg, Aug. 14.—Neither side moved decisively during the day on the great industrial conflict between employers and employees in the steel trade, and the result is still in the balance. The strikers made gains at Pittsburg, McKeesport, Wheeling and Bellaire, in the past 24 hours, but in the main the advantage is still with the mill owners. Both sides claim to be preparing moves that will bring confusion to opponents, but neither side has shown its hand. The general situation can be briefly summarized as follows:

Ten men, five of them skilled, quit at the lower Union mill of the Carnegie company in Pittsburg and joined the strikers. Their defection represented the first break in the Carnegie forces of more than 15,000 men. The strikers were jubilant over the incident, but the company claims to have filled their places at once and there will be no more desertions at any of the plants.

The Bellaire plant, at which the men struck on Sunday, has finally closed down. When another start will be made is problematical. Several hundred boys, employed at the National tube works at McKeesport, went out during the night and day and their action materially aided the efforts of the strikers to finally tie the plant up. The works are going ahead short handed, but the ranks of the workers are thinning and the supply of material is limited. The strikers made gains at Wheeling and the steel officials admitted that Benwood would be closed down. Clark's mill here is moving along full handed, Lindsay & McCutcheon's is operating with a small crew and the managers are planning to open Painter's mill and increase the force at Lindsay & McCutcheon's. A of the men who struck at Painter's is expected but the strike managers deny that one will occur. Another break is reported as possible at New Castle, but there are as yet no positive indications of it. The American Tin Plate company has a small force at the Crescent plant in Cleveland and is also planning resumption at other points with non-union men. The Steel corporation has ordered that the Chartiers plant at Carnegie be dismantled and removed to Leechburg. So far good order has prevailed, although the steel officials assert that there has been intimidation at Wheeling, McKeesport and Pittsburg.

The number of men out as a result of the strike orders is placed at 62,000. Many strikers have found work in independent mills or at other occupations and many are idle merely because the skilled men are out.

The Steel corporation held its own at Chicago, Joliet, Bayview, Youngstown, Columbus, the Kiskimuntus Valley and the Carnegie group with the exception of the instance named. The strikers are considering plans for breaking the decision of Chicago, Joliet and Bayview to stand with the steel companies, but what they plan to do has not been made clear. They are charging some of the Western men with both dishonesty and disloyalty, and there is a general desire among members of the Amalgamated association here for some form of inquiry.

HAS FULL POWER.

Secretary Tighe of the Amalgamated Association in Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—Without notification to the officers or members of the Amalgamated association in South Chicago, Michael F. Tighe, assistant secretary of the national body, has arrived in Chicago. Secretary Tighe comes clothed with all the necessary powers and prerogatives of President T. J. Shaffer, whose personal representative he is. He will confer with the principal local officers and order a special joint meeting of the two lodges. The purpose of the meeting has not been announced, but Secretary Tighe does not deny that a message from President Shaffer will be read at that meeting and an attempt will be made to have the vote of last Sunday reconsidered. Tighe will also visit Milwaukee and Joliet.

Resolution of Sympathy Introduced. Austin, Tex., Aug. 14.—A resolution was introduced in the state legislature pledging moral and financial support to the steel strikers and requesting members to contribute $1 per day of their salaries to aid the strikers. The resolution went over.

Portland, Or., Aug. 14.—President C. S. Mellen of the Northern Pacific has arrived here. Speaking of the inducements which will be offered to bring immigrants into the Northwest, he said:

Each employee, from section foreman to general manager, was remembered, Vice President Dodge receiving more than $100,000 worth of stock.

Conroy of Chicago, who has presented a claim for $35,000 to the British government for losses sustained in the Transvaal by British confiscation of his hospital equipment, was with the Irish ambulance corps that joined the Boers. Dr. Conroy asserts that he remained true to his neutrality oath as a Red Cross physician and that his equipment was seized under orders from General Ian Hamilton and that he, himself, was deported.

BEAT THE CUSTOMS.

Serious Charge Against New York Silk Importers.

New York, Aug. 14.—Appraiser Wakeman said that he had called in the goods of a number of silk importing houses and was making an examination to see whether the goods had been properly appraised. This is because of a belief that certain examiners in the employ of the government have been making large sums of money from the importers by passing Japanese silks with undervaluations. If the undervaluation and underweighing have been practiced steadily, as alleged, the government has been defrauded of large sums of money. One examiner is alleged to have received $3,000 a year from silk importing firms, another was sent to Europe and another had come into possession of valuable real estate.

REPORTS REGARDING COLOMBIA'S REVOLUTION REACH WASHINGTON.

MUCH FIGHTING GOING ON

Guerrillas Attack Towns Between Colon and Panama—Adherents of Former President Imprisoned for Aiding the Insurrection—General Uribe Uribe Reported Killed in Venezuela. Was Helping Rebel Invaders.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The state department has received mail advices from three different quarters in Colombia, all showing revolutionary movements in progress and a rather serious condition of affairs. Both termini of the Panama railway route were heard from, Consul General Gudgeon writing from Panama as to a revolutionary attack on nearby towns and Consul Malmros, at Colon, reporting that guerrilla fighting had been going on at different points between Colon and Panama. At the same time, Minister Hart wrote from the capital of Colombia as to the arrest and imprisonment of prominent adherents of the former president, Dr. Sanclemente, as they were suspected of seeking to have the Nationalist organization join with the Liberals, who are said to be showing increased strength and activity in a revolutionary movement. Although these letters have taken some time to come forward, yet they give the state department about the best and the only definite information that is at hand as to the condition of affairs. Mr. Gudgeon's letter speaks of a revolutionary raid on July 26 and 27, in which an alcalde and several policemen were made prisoners and some arms and provisions captured. The navy department received word during the day of the sailing of the Iowa from Puget sound for San Francisco, whence she will go to Panama, if her services are required there.

There is an entire lack of official information here concerning the progress of affairs in Venezuela. Whether the Colombian minister actually has left Venezuela, as reported in a press dispatch from Willemstad, is not known here. The departure of the minister would be in line with what was foreshadowed when the American charge d'affaires, Mr. Russell, of Venezuela, asked for authority to represent Colombia in case the minister there withdrew.

P. B. Nettleton: To relieve the "double drouth" in houses referred to by Superintendent Bean in yesterday's DISPATCH, I now offer to furnish any business man or others in Brainerd who wish to build houses for rent—two-thirds of the money necessary, they only putting in one-third. Last Monday Mr. Henry Brooks and Mrs. Annie Lange bled themselves to Brainerd and had themselves united in the holy bonds of matrimony, the knot being tied with extra firmness by Rev. Father Lynch. The happy people returned in the afternoon and in the evening, at the home of Ed. Trombly, of Pine Knoll, a wedding celebration was held, and a large number from Aitkin and surrounding country attended, all having a fine time. The bride is the daughter of Adolph Lange and the groom the son of Henry Brooks.—Aitkin Age.

Dr. Bracken Says When Lumberjack Gets Small-Pox He Comes to Cities.

CAMP PEST-HOUSE SUGGESTED.

The Meeting of Health Officers And Lumbermen Being Held in Duluth.

The meeting of the health officers, lumbermen and others called at Duluth yesterday was quite largely attended.

Dr. Bracken stated the object of the meeting and considerable business was transacted. He said that the danger of a smallpox epidemic lies mainly with the woodsmen, who are in the habit of leaving their camp after they have been exposed, in some cases without their pay, rather than submit to a quarantine, and the main discussion was over the way to keep them from carrying the disease.

One of the regulations suggested by Dr. Bracken was that in connection with every camp a building should be constructed, or a double wall tent, which should be used for the reception of any employees who became sick with any contagious disease or any disease that was apparently contagious. Dr. Bracken said that he understood that most of the lumber camps throughout the state had provided such places for the care of the sick. If the proprietors of the lumber camps would take immediate action in every case where smallpox was suspected, a great deal of expense and trouble could be saved.

He says that it has been the practice in some camps the minute a man shows signs of weakness to pay him off and send him away. He thinks that if they hold back his pay and keep him in camp until the nature of his disease is discovered, that fewer men with smallpox would be turned loose on the community.

"As I understand it," says Dr. Bracken, "if a man gets smallpox some of the companies will give him his time and he will go to city where he can spend his money. The first place he strikes is a saloon. Here he stays until all his money is gone and then the saloonkeeper telephones the board of health that he has a case of smallpox. They are compelled to take him and keep him at the expense of the community, whereas if his disease is reported before he gets a chance to spend his money he will be able to pay for his care and treatment. This is only a fair proposition and instead of turning the patient loose with his time check, the companies should notify the proper authorities."

A lumberman expressed his opinion that the best way out of the difficulty would be to require camp owners to employ none but vaccinated men in the camps, providing vaccination is a preventive. Dr. Bracken replied that he thought that decidedly vaccination was a preventive. He said that vaccination, isolation and disinfection were the three things that would stamp out the disease.

In speaking of the vaccination among the school children, Dr. Bracken said that a great many were vaccinated before the objections raised rose to serious proportions. The attorney general ruled that no general order could be given except in cases of epidemic. Dr. Bracken has seen the attorney general, who has decided that an epidemic exists throughout the state of Minnesota, consequently Dr. Bracken gave the order.

During the discussion Dr. Bracken stated that there were 6300 cases in the state last fall and 29 deaths.

Hoisters and Loaders Get into a Scrape with Saloon Men at Walker Few Nights Ago.

Reports come from Walker of a pretty rough time at that place a few nights ago when the saloon men and a gang of hoisters and loaders got into some trouble.

Announcement

Extraordinary.

I wish to announce to the citizens of Brainerd that I have completed arrangements whereby I am now in position to build houses and cottages in any part of the city to suit my customers, and sell them on a small cash payment the balance of purchase price and interest payable in monthly payments that amount to no more than ordinary rent.

This plan places a new up-to-date home within the reach of every thrifty family in Brainerd. More than that, it affords every family an opportunity to acquire a home for nothing, as the amount paid as rent pays for the home. Prompt action is necessary in order to complete houses this fall. See me at your earliest convenience. First come, first served. I can show plans of some very nice modern houses and cottages of neat and attractive designs.

Master Mechanic Bean: I understand some of these business men who have money say that if they could find someone to rent houses or buy them they would build. They ought to build and see how fast the houses would be taken.

P. B. Nettleton: To relieve the "double drouth" in houses referred to by Superintendent Bean in yesterday's DISPATCH, I now offer to furnish any business man or others in Brainerd who wish to build houses for rent—two-thirds of the money necessary, they only putting in one-third. For the amount I furnish they may repay at the rate they rent the houses for. I will guarantee to do this for one hundred houses, if wanted, in approved locations. This offer open for thirty days.

Weather.
Fair tonight and Thursday.
Warmer.

AN ice famine in the Klondike would be considered as great a calamity as a beer famine in Milwaukee, and that's saying a good deal.

THE Motley citizen has made its appearance and if the succeeding numbers are as good as the first its publisher should succeed in his undertaking.

MINNEAPOLIS wholesale grocers will try to get along without "drummers." Well, Brainerd won't miss them in a business way with her two wholesale grocery houses right at home.

A MAN at Menomonie, Wis., offers a reward of $25 for the return of his wife who has eloped. This reward is not much of an inducement and was undoubtedly made with this fact in view.

H. C. STIVERS is conducting the labor department of the West Superior Clarion-Citizen and in a very able manner. Bro. Stivers has always been a firm friend of organized labor and has given much of his time to the study of the conditions of the laboring man, his needs and his rights.

THAT "a policeman's life is not a happy one" has long been an established fact but when they air their grievances on a public street corner before a crowd of a hundred or more they are not helping their cause any. There are places where such matters should be discussed and without making a public exhibition.

CURBSTONE CHAT.

J. C. Hessel: Inquiries from other states for hay are still coming in.

M. J. Reilly: Yes, Seventh street is getting to be a very good business thoroughfare.

Master Mechanic Bean: I understand some of these business men who have money say that if they could find someone to rent houses or buy them they would build. They ought to build and see how fast the houses would be taken.

P. B. Nettleton: To relieve "the double drouth" in houses referred to by Superintendent Bean in yesterday's DISPATCH, I now offer to furnish any business man or others in Brainerd who wish to build houses for rent—two-thirds of the money necessary, they only putting in one-third. For the amount I furnish they may repay at the rate they rent the houses for. I will guarantee to do this for one hundred houses, if wanted, in approved locations. This offer open for thirty days.

RED WING GETS IT.

About 130 delegates were in attendance. A big parade was held which attracted much attention.

The next convention will be held at Red Wing.

Just as the Duluth train was pulling out of the yard some one on the train held a letter up in his hand and told him to come and get it. Just as Mr. Miller went to cross the main track the train from the west pulled in and he did not realize that it was so near. The engine was almost on top of him and he even had to put his hand on the cowcatcher to help himself out of the pernicious position.

Neighborhood Gossip.

Tomorrow the Anoka Lodge, A. O. U. W., will enjoy an excursion to Lake Minnetonka.

A modern building costing $20,000 is being erected at Red Wing, which will be used by the Masons and Co. G.

Albert H. Petrie, a well known Minneapolis lumberman, who formerly operated in Duluth, died Sunday morning at his residence in Minneapolis at the age of 55 years.

The 6-year-old daughter of Charles Amos, of Little Valley, fell from a load of grain while going down hill. The wagon passed over her neck, killing her instantly.

Mayor Fred S. Parker, of West Superior, has returned from a trip abroad and will at once prepare an answer in the libel suit brought against him by Alderman John W. Barry.

Harvy Scott, a farmer living near Faribault, died recently and he had money to burn—anyway he left an order in the will to have his administrator burn about $45,000 so some of the heirs he had it in for could not get hold of it.

About 150 members of local lodges of Red Men left for Cass Lake yesterday morning, where the state grand lodge will be held this week. The crowd of delegates was increased to 300 at Minneapolis, and many chiefs and their tribes were picked up at the smaller towns on the way to Cass Lake.—Pioneer Press.

Rum river is extremely low at present and no trouble is experienced in harvesting the hay crop along its banks. Most of the farmers are hauling the hay off as rapidly as it is made in order to avoid danger from future high water.—Princeton Union.

Sunday morning about 1:30 fire broke out in the Sprafka general store at Minto, N. D., the largest in that city, and the loss on the goods from fire and water was total and amounts to about $30,000. The citizens and fire department turned out and put up a great fight, and succeeded in saving the building, but the stock will be a total loss.

Two small children have met with tragic deaths here. The 2-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson drank some liquid fly poison and died in the yard where it was playing with a little sister. At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Kennedy, north of Fargo, a pail of boiling water had been set on the kitchen floor. The little 3-year-old daughter was playing near and fell backwards into the water, dying a few hours later, from the injuries sustained.—Fargo Forum.

Judging from recent developments in the electric line field, Anoka will have to again content itself with a deferred hope. It seems to be pretty generally agreed among those who know something of the plans of the Minneapolis Street Railway company, that the first extension to be made out of the city will be the Minnetonka line, which is being demanded by the thousands of Minneapolisians who summer at the lake.—Anoka Herald.

Last Monday Mr. Henry Brooks and Mrs. Annie Lange bled themselves united in the holy bonds of matrimony, the knot being tied with extra firmness by Rev. Father Lynch. The happy people returned in the afternoon and in the evening, at the home of Ed. Trombly, of Pine Knoll, a wedding celebration was held, and a large number from Aitkin and surrounding country attended, all having a fine time. The bride is the daughter of Adolph Lange and the groom the son of Henry Brooks.—Aitkin Age.

Dr. Bracken Says When Lumberjack Gets Small-Pox He Comes to Cities.

CAMP PEST-HOUSE SUGGESTED.

The Meeting of Health Officers And Lumbermen Being Held in Duluth.

The meeting of the health officers, lumbermen and others called at Duluth yesterday was quite largely attended.

Dr. Bracken stated the object of the meeting and considerable business was transacted. He said that the danger of a smallpox epidemic lies mainly with the woodsmen, who are in the habit of leaving their camp after they have been exposed, in some cases without their pay, rather than submit to a quarantine, and the main discussion was over the way to keep them from carrying the disease.

One of the regulations suggested by Dr. Bracken was that in connection with every camp a building should be constructed, or a double wall tent, which should be used for the reception of any employees who became sick with any contagious disease or any disease that was apparently contagious. Dr. Bracken said that he understood that most of the lumber camps throughout the state had provided such places for the care of the sick. If the proprietors of the lumber camps would take immediate action in every case where smallpox was suspected, a great deal of expense and trouble could be saved.

He says that it has been the practice in some camps the minute a man shows signs of weakness to pay him off and send him away. He thinks that if they hold back his pay and keep him in camp until the nature of his disease is discovered, that fewer men with smallpox would be turned loose on the community.

"As I understand it," says Dr. Bracken, "if a man gets smallpox some of the companies will give him his time and he will go to city where he can spend his money. The first place he strikes is a saloon. Here he stays until all his money is gone and then the saloonkeeper telephones the board of health that he has a case of smallpox. They are compelled to take him and keep him at the expense of the community, whereas if his disease is reported before he gets a chance to spend his money he will be able to pay for his care and treatment. This is only a fair proposition and instead of turning the patient loose with his time check, the companies should notify the proper authorities."

A lumberman expressed his opinion that the best way out of the difficulty would be to require camp owners to employ none but vaccinated men in the camps, providing vaccination is a preventive. Dr. Bracken replied that he thought that decidedly vaccination was a preventive. He said that vaccination, isolation and disinfection were the three things that would stamp out the disease.

In speaking of the vaccination among the school children, Dr. Bracken said that a great many were vaccinated before the objections raised rose to serious proportions. The attorney general ruled that no general order could be given except in cases of epidemic. Dr. Bracken has seen the attorney general, who has decided that an epidemic exists throughout the state of Minnesota, consequently Dr. Bracken gave the order.

During the discussion Dr. Bracken stated that there were 6300 cases in the state last fall and 29 deaths.

Hoisters and Loaders Get into a Scrape with Saloon Men at Walker Few Nights Ago.

Reports come from Walker of a pretty rough time at that place a few nights ago when the saloon men and a gang of hoisters and loaders got into some trouble.

The men got some fighting whisky under their belts and started in to do the town up right. The saloon men resented anything of the kind and for a time there was a free-for-all. Some of the men are quite badly injured.

Announcement Extraordinary.

I wish to announce to the citizens of Brainerd that I have completed arrangements whereby I am now in position to build houses and cottages in any part of the city to suit my customers, and sell them on a small cash payment the balance of purchase price and interest payable in monthly payments that amount to no more than ordinary rent.

This plan places a new up-to-date home within the reach of every thrifty family in Brainerd. More than that, it affords every family an opportunity to acquire a home for nothing, as the amount paid as rent pays for the home. Prompt action is necessary in order to complete houses this fall. See me at your earliest convenience. First come, first served. I can show plans of some very nice modern houses and cottages of neat and attractive designs.

WOOD ATTEMPTED TO WRECK TRAIN.

Sheriff Tanner, of Little Falls, Looking For a Bold Bad Man.

TRIED TO WRECK A TRAIN.

The Young Man's Father Lives Near Pillager But The Boy Was Not Home.

Yesterday afternoon Sheriff Tanner, of Little Falls, and Inspector W. J. McFetridge, of the Northern Pacific, were in the city and drove out towards Pillager to try and locate a young man by the name of Ed. Wood, who has a rather game reputation in and about Little Falls.

It is reported that Wood sometime ago stole a hand car from the Northern Pacific and rode a few miles from Little Falls and carried a lot of ties and piled them on the track. No one knows what his motive was in doing this and why he should want to wreck the train.

Fortunately some one happened along and saw the obstruction and notified some of the officials.

The sheriff and inspector drove out to the boy's home this side of Pillager yesterday afternoon but the boy was not there and could not be found. They returned to Little Falls last evening.

It is understood that Wood is also wanted for stealing candy from a car.

ON THE DIAMOND.

Fargo will probably play in this city about September 1, with the local team.

President Ferris, of the First National bank of Brainerd, said this morning that he wasn't able to give a thought to politics. Everyone about the bank was busy receiving large deposits from citizens who were in Little Falls Sunday to see a ball game.—Transcript.

The Aitkin Republican sporting editor loads up its thirteen-inch gun and lets her go bully last week, the article appearing in THE DISPATCH having stirred them up a bit. The only fault there is to find with the article is the fact that they have put in a game, won by Aitkin of course, in the list of games, that was never played with the Brainerd team. Manager Lagerquist and his men were in another town on that Sunday, when it is claimed that Brainerd was shut out, the score being 4 to 0. Several young men in the city got on the train and went up to Aitkin that afternoon just for fun, without even a bat. Come, cut that out, old man, and make it three won by Brainerd and two won by Aitkin in the series.

ELEVENTH ANNUAL FAIR.

Premium List of the Crow Wing County Agricultural Society Is Out For 1901.

The catalogue with premium list and rules and regulations for the eleventh annual fair of the Crow Wing County Agricultural Society, which is to be held on September 11, 12, 13 and 14, is out and it is a neat piece of work, artistically and typographically perfect and a credit to the Tribune.

The fair this year will be better than ever before, as is shown in the perusal of the lists and program of events. In the introductory remarks Secretary Halsted says:

"The object of these annual fairs is to bring out the varied resources of the county; to encourage our farmers to make special efforts to develop our great natural resources, and to exhibit them in such a way that they will advertise our county and thus indirectly benefit every one of our citizens. Every farmer, laborer and business man is therefore personally interested in the work of the Agricultural Society."

Special rates will be made on the railroads for the event, and it is expected that there will be a large attendance throughout.

WE CAN DRAW A CROWD.

A Little Seance on the Corner That Puts The Salvation Army in the Clear.

Last night quite a scene was created on the corner of Front and Sixth streets, when Officers Preston and Brockway hailed the city editor of THE DISPATCH and started to read the riot act to him because it was stated yesterday afternoon in THE DISPATCH that "it was claimed" that Frank O'Neil intended to bring suit against them for handling him roughly. The rag was chewed into small bits of strings, the policemen and the reporter taking the floor alternately. The gentlemen were very emphatically informed that THE DISPATCH would publish the news without any suggestions from them.

The city editor told them he would have very much preferred to have had the gentlemen come up to the office and talk things over, but of course it furnished a lot of amusement for pedestrians and any thing of that kind is "nuts" for a newspaper man.

Both Mr. Preston and Mr. Brockway claim they should have been consulted before the article was published. Nit!

FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Of The Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLain Celebrated Last Night At Their Home.

Some seventy-five young people dropped in on Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLain last night at their home in East Brainerd and gave them a genuine surprise.

It was their fifth wedding anniversary and the event was made a memorable one in their lives. The young couple were presented with a beautiful cabinet.

A repast of bounteous proportions was served during the evening.

PROPOSITION IS ACCEPTED.

The Indian Commission at Washington Directs The Acceptance of Joseph Farr's Deal.

A Washington dispatch says that Indian Commissioner Jones to-day directed Captain Mercer to accept the compromise agreed upon by Special Agent Farr, and representatives of the Scanlon-Gipson company and of the Cass Lake company, in the settlement for the green timber cut by those companies. White pine is to be paid for at $11 a thousand feet and Norway pine at $6.50 and $7.50 a thousand. The difference in favor of the contractors is about $1,400.

This settles a long drawn out controversy between the department and the above companies. The companies were charged by the department with illegally cutting a large amount of White Pine. Joseph Farr was sent out from Washington sometime ago to re-scale the logs and his visit to Cass Lake was a means of making some bad feeling between that gentleman and Capt Mercer. Farr claimed that after the re-scale was made he saved the Indians something like $100,000. Then on the other hand it was claimed that Farr had not found any more logs than Captain Mercer's Scalpers returned in their report to him.

Commissioner Jones stated at the time the trouble was on that a wrong impression had gone out regarding Farr's trip to Cass Lake. He stated that Farr did not go there to make a resale but was to confer with the heads of the companies interested about the prices he put on illegally cut logs. He had been instructed, if the companies did not agree to take green timber at this price, to segregate the cut and sell to the highest bidder. In his letter to the commissioner Farr referred to the charges filed against him by Samuel Hunter of Minneapolis, but made no answer to them.

FALL IN LINE FOR THE PARADE.

Some Great Prizes Have Been Hung By The Labor Day Association.

WILL BE ALL KINDS OF FLOATS.

Brainerd Will Certainly Be in Gala Attire For Once in Her History.

There was another very important meeting of the Labor Day Association last evening and the indications are that the committees are all working with a vim toward making the celebration a success.

The music committee reported that the Southeast Brainerd band has been secured for the occasion.

The dance committee reported that those who were going to participate in the cake walk were getting along nicely.

The speakers committee was authorized to make arrangements for a speakers' stand.

The most important report was from the committee of parades of which Henry I. Cohen is chairman. Some of the largest prizes ever given in Brainerd have been hung up and the committees report that they have many features on the list this year that will be new and novel. SPEEDY HORSES TO TROT.

Races at the State Fair to be of the Finest—Pool-Selling is Prohibited.

Entries for the State Fair races closed on July 2 and the names of the horses which will trot and pace during fair week were made public. As the purses are large and the reputation of the fair the best, the list is found to excell last year's fine line of horses.

It should be remembered that there are fast races on every day of the fair—Monday and Saturday included—and that none of the races is for less than $1,000, while the big trot on Minneapolis day and the pace on St. Paul day are each for $5,000.

Pool-selling is prohibited at the fair grounds. The races are clean and the track is one of the fastest in the country.

The fair opens on September 2 with an address by Vice-President Roosevelt. Half-rate fares have been made by the railroads.

HAD NO JURISDICTION.

Some St. Mathias Parties Try to Take a Change of Venue to Judge Mantor's Court.

This morning the defendant in the case of the State of Minnesota vs. Fred J. Reed appeared in Judge Mantor's court to try the case, the same having been instituted before a justice of the peace at St. Mathias, but a change of venue was taken to the court in this city, defendant having filed an affidavit of prejudice against the judge at St. Mathias.

Judge Mantor could not try the case as he had no jurisdiction, the law requiring that a case be taken to the nearest justice of the peace.

Larson Fined $5.

The hearing in the John Larson case was had this afternoon. He is the man who was charged with disorderly conduct in connection with the Hurley-O'Neil fracas. Judge Mantor after hearing the evidence found him guilty and fined him $5.

LETTER FROM ALASKA.

A. Van Curler Writes an Interesting Communication to The Dispatch From Skagway.

EDITOR DISPATCH—Thinking perhaps a few lines in regard to this country would interest some of my friends, and knowing the DISPATCH reaches them all, I will endeavor to give a few facts regarding it. We are having a most beautiful summer, it is daylight all night and I can see to read a paper at 11 p. m. as well as in the day. In the winter months it gets very dark at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and remains so until 9 in the morning, and during that time we can see the sun but three hours a day. We had a very cold winter and the snow was very deep and for eight days the snow fell and the wind howled as hard as I ever saw or heard it. The mountains are white with snow yet. Skagway has 3,000 inhabitants and is on the banks of Lynn canal and surrounded with mountains which are exceedingly high. There are some very fine buildings here, stores of all descriptions, saloons and hotels. The city has an electric light plant and large machine shops are located here. The railroad connects Skagway with White Horse and from there you take the boat to Dawson. There is a fine port of entry here with four wharves and boats arrive daily from Seattle. A regiment of colored soldiers are stationed here, the officers being white men, and they are kept here on account of the troublesome Siwash Indians. I have visited one ice glacier that is six miles long and a mile wide and it is a sight well worth seeing. Lots of gold is being taken out of the Dawson and Klondike country this summer. My wife and I intend going to Dawson this winter, as wages are low and not much doing. Wages are $3 per day and board for work in the mines but at Dawson they pay from $7 to $15 per day and board. I have met many of the Brainerd boys here in Skagway that lived there ten or twelve years ago.

A. VAN CURLER, Skagway, Alaska, July 29, 1901.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Daughter of the Diamond King," the season's big success, is the coming attraction at the Gardner hall, Thurs. Aug. 15. It is said to be a powerful play, bright as a diamond; the company of twenty people is headed by La Belle Laurette one of the most popular young stars of recent discovery. She is beautiful, versatile and has the charm of youth; Chas. A. Taylor, the well known author saw her in vaudeville and wrote a part for her in one of his productions. She was an instantaneous hit and this play was written especially for her. She is supported by the sterling actor, W. A. Whitcar, the well known leading man for years with popular productions. In the cast are many well known favorites—Chas. A. McGrath plays the attorney, H. F. Clarens plays the justice, Virginia Clay the spinster, little Juliette de Grignan, for the past three seasons with Jacob Litt, plays the bad boy and sweet Dolly Kemper plays her companion part. The Lenten Trio of grotesque Comedy Acrobats, the New York Ladies' Quartette, Fred Melville, John de Gez, Frederick B. Seaton, Ida H. Wynn the Opera Singer, Baby Edith and many others. One of the scenes introduces the singing of school children and a wedding in the school house, another shows Madi Gras night at the Metropolitan Vandeville Club, New York, and introduces vaudeville. The singing of the village choir is another interesting number. There is no shooting, no murders but many stirring scenes.

The last act shows the laying of the corner stone of the Diamond Palace, by Electric light—a grand illuminated tableau of the Masonic ceremony. The story is well told and comedy predominates, it is of the natural sort that lingers in the memory after the curtain falls on the finale scene. "Daughter of the Diamond King" is a refreshing novelty comparing favorably with many a higher priced production. It is a moral high class entertainment worthy of liberal patronage. Two entire sets of scenery are carried by the company enabling the production of the play on any stage no matter how small.

The Young Man's Father Lives Near Pillager But The Boy Was Not Home.

Yesterday afternoon Sheriff Tanner, of Little Falls, and Inspector W. J. McFetridge, of the Northern Pacific, were in the city and drove out towards Pillager to try and locate a young man by the name of Ed. Wood, who has a rather game reputation in and about Little Falls.

It is reported that Wood sometime ago stole a hand car from the Northern Pacific and rode a few miles from Little Falls and carried a lot of ties and piled them on the track. No one knows what his motive was in doing this and why he should want to wreck the train.

Fortunately some one happened along and saw the obstruction and notified some of the officials.

The sheriff and inspector drove out to the boy's home this side of Pillager yesterday afternoon but the boy was not there and could not be found. They returned to Little Falls last evening.

It is understood that Wood is also wanted for stealing candy from a car.

WE CAN DRAW A CROWD.

A Little Seance on the Corner That Puts The Salvation Army in the Clear.

Last night quite a scene was created on the corner of Front and Sixth streets, when Officers Preston and Brockway hailed the city editor of THE DISPATCH and started to read the riot act to him because it was stated yesterday afternoon in THE DISPATCH that "it was claimed" that Frank O'Neil intended to bring suit against them for handling him roughly. The rag was chewed into small bits of strings, the policemen and the reporter taking the floor alternately. The gentlemen were very emphatically informed that THE DISPATCH would publish the news without any suggestions from them.

The city editor told them he would have very much preferred to have had the gentlemen come up to the office and talk things over, but of course it furnished a lot of amusement for pedestrians and any thing of that kind is "nuts" for a newspaper man.

Both Mr. Preston and Mr. Brockway claim they should have been consulted before the article was published. Nit!

Of The Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLain Celebrated Last Night At Their Home.

Some seventy-five young people dropped in on Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLain last night at their home in East Brainerd and gave them a genuine surprise.

It was their fifth wedding anniversary and the event was made a memorable one in their lives. The young couple were presented with a beautiful cabinet.

A repast of bounteous proportions was served during the evening.

PROPOSITION IS ACCEPTED.

The Indian Commission at Washington Directs The Acceptance of Joseph Farr's Deal.

A Washington dispatch says that Indian Commissioner Jones to-day directed Captain Mercer to accept the compromise agreed upon by Special Agent Farr, and representatives of the Scanlon-Gipson company and of the Cass Lake company, in the settlement for the green timber cut by those companies. White pine is to be paid for at $11 a thousand feet and Norway pine at $6.50 and $7.50 a thousand. The difference in favor of the contractors is about $1,400.

This settles a long drawn out controversy between the department and the above companies. The companies were charged by the department with illegally cutting a large amount of White Pine. Joseph Farr was sent out from Washington sometime ago to re-scale the logs and his visit to Cass Lake was a means of making some bad feeling between that gentleman and Capt Mercer. Farr claimed that after the re-scale was made he saved the Indians something like $100,000. Then on the other hand it was claimed that Farr had not found any more logs then Captain Mercer's Scalars returned in their report to him.

Commissioner Jones stated at the time the trouble was on that a wrong impression had gone out regarding Farr's trip to Cass Lake. He stated that Farr did not go there to make a resale but was to confer with the heads of the companies interested about the prices he put on illegally cut logs. He had been instructed, if the companies did not agree to take green timber at this price, to segregate the cut and sell to the highest bidder. In his letter to the commissioner Farr referred to the charges filed against him by Samuel Hunter of Minneapolis, but made no answer to them.

"The object of these annual fairs is to bring out the varied resources of the county; to encourage our farmers to make special efforts to develop our great natural resources, and to exhibit them in such a way that they will advertise our county and thus indirectly benefit every one of our citizens. Every farmer, laborer and business man is therefore personally interested in the work of the Agricultural Society."

Special rates will be made on the railroads for the event, and it is expected that there will be a large attendance throughout.

WE CAN DRAW A CROWD.

A Little Seance on the Corner That Puts The Salvation Army in the Clear.

Last night quite a scene was created on the corner of Front and Sixth streets, when Officers Preston and Brockway hailed the city editor of THE DISPATCH and started to read the riot act to him because it was stated yesterday afternoon in THE DISPATCH that "it was claimed" that Frank O'Neil intended to bring suit against them for handling him roughly. The rag was chewed into small bits of strings, the policemen and the reporter taking the floor alternately. The gentlemen were very emphatically informed that THE DISPATCH would publish the news without any suggestions from them.

The city editor told them he would have very much preferred to have had the gentlemen come up to the office and talk things over, but of course it furnished a lot of amusement for pedestrians and any thing of that kind is "nuts" for a newspaper man.

Both Mr. Preston and Mr. Brockway claim they should have been consulted before the article was published. Nit!

FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Of The Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLain Celebrated Last Night At Their Home.

Some seventy-five young people dropped in on Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLain last night at their home in East Brainerd and gave them a genuine surprise.

It was their fifth wedding anniversary and the event was made a memorable one in their lives. The young couple were presented with a beautiful cabinet.

A repast of bounteous proportions was served during the evening.

PROPOSITION IS ACCEPTED.

The Indian Commission at Washington Directs The Acceptance of Joseph Farr's Deal.

A Washington dispatch says that Indian Commissioner Jones to-day directed Captain Mercer to accept the compromise agreed upon by Special Agent Farr, and representatives of the Scanlon-Gipson company and of the Cass Lake company, in the settlement for the green timber cut by those companies. White pine is to be paid for at $11 a thousand feet and Norway pine at $6.50 and $7.50 a thousand. The difference in favor of the contractors is about $1,400.

This settles a long drawn out controversy between the department and the above companies. The companies were charged by the department with illegally cutting a large amount of White Pine. Joseph Farr was sent out from Washington sometime ago to re-scale the logs and his visit to Cass Lake was a means of making some bad feeling between that gentleman and Capt Mercer. Farr claimed that after the re-scale was made he saved the Indians something like $100,000. Then on the other hand it was claimed that Farr had not found any more logs then Captain Mercer's Scalpers returned in their report to him.

Commissioner Jones stated at the time the trouble was on that a wrong impression had gone out regarding Farr's trip to Cass Lake. He stated that Farr did not go there to make a resale but was to confer with the heads of the companies interested about the prices he put on illegally cut logs. He had been instructed, if the companies did not agree to take green timber at this price, to segregate the cut and sell to the highest bidder. In his letter to the commissioner Farr referred to the charges filed against him by Samuel Hunter of Minneapolis, but made no answer to them.

SPEEDY HORSES TO TROT.

Races at the State Fair to be of the Finest—Pool-Selling is Prohibited.

Entries for the State Fair races closed on July 2 and the names of the horses which will trot and pace during fair week were made public. As the purses are large and the reputation of the fair the best, the list is found to excell last year's fine line of horses.

It should be remembered that there are fast races on every day of the fair—Monday and Saturday included—and that none of the races is for less than $1,000, while the big trot on Minneapolis day and the pace on St. Paul day are each for $5,000.

Pool-selling is prohibited at the fair grounds. The races are clean and the track is one of the fastest in the country.

The fair opens on September 2 with an address by Vice-President Roosevelt. Half-rate fares have been made by the railroads.

HAD NO JURISDICTION.

Some St. Mathias Parties Try to Take a Change of Venue to Judge Mantor's Court.

This morning the defendant in the case of the State of Minnesota vs. Fred J. Reed appeared in Judge Mantor's court to try the case, the same having been instituted before a justice of the peace at St. Mathias, but a change of venue was taken to the court in this city, defendant having filed an affidavit of prejudice against the judge at St. Mathias.

Judge Mantor could not try the case as he had no jurisdiction, the law requiring that a case be taken to the nearest justice of the peace.

LETTER FROM ALASKA.

A. Van Curler Writes an Interesting Communication to The Dispatch From Skagway.

EDITOR DISPATCH—Thinking perhaps a few lines in regard to this country would interest some of my friends, and knowing the DISPATCH reaches them all, I will endeavor to give a few facts regarding it. We are having a most beautiful summer, it is daylight all night and I can see to read a paper at 11 p. m. as well as in the day. In the winter months it gets very dark at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and remains so until 9 in the morning, and during that time we can see the sun but three hours a day. We had a very cold winter and the snow was very deep and for eight days the snow fell and the wind howled as hard as I ever saw or heard it. The mountains are white with snow yet. Skagway has 3,000 inhabitants and is on the banks of Lynn canal and surrounded with mountains which are exceedingly high. There are some very fine buildings here, stores of all descriptions, saloons and hotels. The city has an electric light plant and large machine shops are located here. The railroad connects Skagway with White Horse and from there you take the boat to Dawson. There is a fine port of entry here with four wharves and boats arrive daily from Seattle. A regiment of colored soldiers are stationed here, the officers being white men, and they are kept here on account of the troublesome Siwash Indians. I have visited one ice glacier that is six miles long and a mile wide and it is a sight well worth seeing. Lots of gold is being taken out of the Dawson and Klondike country this summer. My wife and I intend going to Dawson this winter, as wages are low and not much doing. Wages are $3 per day and board for work in the mines but at Dawson they pay from $7 to $15 per day and board. I have met many of the Brainerd boys here in Skagway that lived there ten or twelve years ago.

A. VAN CURLER.

Skagway, Alaska, July 29, 1901.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Daughter of the Diamond King," the season's big success, is the coming attraction at the Gardner hall, Thurs. Aug. 15. It is said to be a powerful play, bright as a diamond; the company of twenty people is headed by La Belle Laurette one of the most popular young stars of recent discovery. She is beautiful, versatile and has the charm of youth; Chas. A. Taylor, the well known author saw her in vaudeville and wrote a part for her in one of his productions. She was an instantaneous hit and this play was written especially for her. She is supported by the sterling actor, W. A. Whitcar, the well known leading man for years with popular productions. In the cast are many well known favorites—Chas. A. McGrath plays the attorney, H. F. Clarens plays the justice, Virginia Clay the spinster, little Juliette de Grignan, for the past three seasons with Jacob Litt, plays the bad boy and sweet Dolly Kemper plays her companion part. The Lenten Trio of grotesque Comedy Acrobats, the New York Ladies' Quartette, Fred Melville, John de Gez, Frederick B. Seaton, Ida H. Wynn the Opera Singer, Baby Edith and many others. One of the scenes introduces the singing of school children and a wedding in the school house, another shows Madi Gras night at the Metropolitan Vandeville Club, New York, and introduces vaudeville. The singing of the village choir is another interesting number. There is no shooting, no murders but many stirring scenes. The last act shows the laying of the corner stone of the Diamond Palace, by Electric light—a grand illuminated tableau of the Masonic ceremony. The story is well told and comedy predominates, it is of the natural sort that lingers in the memory after the curtain falls on the finale scene. "Daughter of the Diamond King" is a refreshing novelty comparing favorably with many a higher priced production. It is a moral high class entertainment worthy of liberal patronage. Two entire sets of scenery are carried by the company enabling the production of the play on any stage no matter how small.

MR. BALFOUR SCORED.

Conservative Leader Blamed for Concessions Made to Nationalists.

London, Aug. 14.—The house of commons passed the factories bill to a third reading after a heated debate, which arose out of the action of the government in withdrawing a clause including laundries within the scope of the bill, because the Nationalists strongly objected to official inspection of the Catholic conventual laundries on the ground that such inspection would be subversive of the discipline it is necessary to maintain in reformatory laundries conducted by nuns for fallen women.

Mr. Ritchie, the home secretary, and Mr. Balfour frankly admitted that this concession was necessary; but many of the supporters of the government hotly denounced it as a surrender to Irish obstruction.

The Conservative papers are angry at what they describe as a "cowardly surrender" and "melancholy weakness." They attribute the result of Mr. Balfour's mismanagement of the house to driving important contentious business into the last days of the session.

BIG BOOM AT LAWTON.

Receipts From Auction Sales of Town Lots Will Exceed $500,000.

Lawton, O. T., Aug. 14.—The indications are that the receipts from the auction sale of town lots now under direction of the federal government will exceed $500,000 in Lawton. This is more than twice the estimate of the most enthusiastic boomer of the reservation. One 25-foot lot here sold during the day for $140 a front foot and the average for the day was about $55 a front foot. Two wholesale grocery companies will begin the erection of buildings at once. Two more private banks have been established, making a total of four for the town.

The land office officials here will not attempt to settle the complications that are expected to grow out of the mineral excitement, although it is generally conceded that the wholesale filling of mineral claims is a mere subterfuge that will not stand. The issues will pass directly to the officials in Washington.

Electricity in Peking.

This use of electricity would do a good deal to abolish night crimes just as the introduction of gas street lighting did in London, England. The Universal Gazette tells us that the firm of Mandi & Co. of Tien-tsin has now received the sanction of the princes and ministers to proceed with road building and electric lighting for the capital. If the Boxers had had a searchlight, it would have been worse for the legations during the siege. So we need, says the Shanghai Mercury, not be sorry that electric lighting has been delayed so long.

SHOELESS SOCIETY NOW

Fashionable Women Promenade London Parks in Sandals.

HIGH REVELING OF SHAPELY FEET

Physicians in Chicago Express Their Views on the Innovation—Most of Them Consider It Thoroughly In Accord With Health—One Has Grave Doubts, However.

If one's toes are pink and shapely and the curves of one's foot are graceful and alluring, it is no offense against modesty, hygiene or the artistic proprieties to appear in public sans shoes and sans stockings, as society women are doing in England, according to a recent cable dispatch.

At least many of the good doctors of Chicago say it isn't, and they are as well qualified to pass judgment on a question of pedal ethics as any set of men and women in the universe, says the Chicago Post. Almost to a unit, chiropodists included, they stand for the sandal for women provided always that the innovation is confined to those feet which, undisturbed by unsightly appendages, are things of beauty and joys forever.

Through the restless waters of the broad Atlantic they hurried this panting piece of news:

London, Aug. 3.—The latest seaside fad is the wearing of sandals by grown persons. Many girls seem to be especially taken with the new idea. The sandals are generally worn without stockings. The craze has spread even to London, where well dressed women can be seen sandaled in the park.

With the receipt in America of this interesting intelligence three questions thrust themselves forward demanding to be answered. First, would the exposure attendant upon the adoption of the custom be physically injurious? Second, would the frank exploitation of the pedal extremities in a state of seminudity be a breach of the rules and regulations hedging modesty in dress? Third, is the undraped human foot, taken as a general thing, sufficiently pulchritudinous to be classified with the objects pleasing to the eye?

To some of these queries, not all of them, the physicians of Chicago have tended to reply.

Quoth Dr. E. Fletcher Ingalls: "My sanction of a custom like that of sandal wearing for women depends greatly upon the women. If they have good looking feet, the sandal habit meets my approval. If their feet are not good looking, I should frown upon the innovation, and do my best to stifle it in its incipency."

Dr. C. Prunty Stringfield also qualified his commendation by the proviso that there must be contours and warm tinted cuticle visible between the sandal straps.

"Provided the sandals made the proper sort of disclosures I have no objection to the abandonment of boots and stockings by women in temperate climates," he said. "In fact, I think it is a good thing. We should be much healthier and better if we came into closer contact with Mother Earth. Scoldom do we of the cities touch the black soil, and then only with shoes on. When I was in general practice, I compared the healthy brown boys playing in bare feet over in the open territory west of State street with the thin, hot-house little chaps in the fashionable districts farther east, and I attribute the difference to the bare feet. I believe we should be better without shoes."

Dr. Sarah Hackett Stevenson, whose knowledge of the feminine foot is, for obvious reasons, more perfect, not to say more extensive, than that of her brother physicians, sanctions the sandal for women in a manner definite and unqualified. She scorns the skepticism concerning the physical beauty of the toes of her sex and says this:

"Of course the sandal for women is an institution to be commended. Can you imagine anything pleasanter than to doff shoes and stockings on a hot day to go walking over a grass carpeted lawn with nothing on your feet save sandals? Of course you can't. Shoes and stockings cause a great deal of ill health, I think."

Possibly it is the openwork hosiery fad that has led Dr. Sanger Brown to have grave doubts concerning the pink possibilities of the female foot. At any rate he side stepped all propositions except that of health and condemned the sandal craze as hygienically unwise.

"I don't want to discuss anything but the health question," said he, "and about that I will say that I think society women who expose themselves by wearing sandals are exceedingly unwise. In a climate like that of London persons in good health who are out of doors a great deal might divest themselves of shoes and stockings without harmful consequences, but for society women the practice is dangerous."

Dr. Ellen Hancock Lyon likens the sandal to the short skirt and asserts that when sanctioned by custom it will be considered not a whit more immodest. Besides this, Dr. Lyon has great faith in the health producing qualities of the bare foot and also of its power to please when revealed through the openwork of a sandal.

"The custom should be encouraged," Dr. Lyon said, "because it means better health. Shoes and stockings cause a great deal of the nervous troubles and poor circulation common among women today. We are trying it among children with extraordinary success, and I have three healthy boys to prove what the barefoot habit can do."

"So far as the moral aspect is concerned, it is only a matter of custom. At first overdecorated and conspicuous sandals might make them offensive, but in time that would be overcome. My commendation of the sandal is unqualified."

WERE SOON CAPTURED.

Texas Train Robbers Are Rounded Up in Short Order.

Fort Worth, Tex., Aug. 14.—The southbound Missouri, Kansas and Texas train No. 3, due here at 6:30 a. m., was robbed at Caney Switch, at 1:05 a. m., by masked men. The express car was blown open, the safe wrecked and the mail car entered and all the mail considered valuable taken. All the passengers were robbed of their money. The robbers secured but little in the express car but got about $400 from the passengers. After holding the train two hours the robbers left, going east into the dense bottom timber.

The trainmen cut out the wrecked express car and ran down to Caney Station and advised officers up and down the road. Within two hours posses of United States marshals, with bloodhounds, were on the trail. The bloodhounds trailed the robbers to their homes. Their names are E. C. Richmond, Bob Alford, George Brown, John Gibson, Tom Edwards and Jack Barr. The men were given a hearing in Commissioner Ball's court at Atoka and their bonds fixed at $5,000 in each case. They could not give the bond and were remanded to jail. There were two men connected with the robbery who rode away on horseback and they have not been captured.

AGENT LOSES HIS REASON.

His Blunder Causes a Collision Near Otho, Ia.

Fort Dodge, Ia., Aug. 14.—James Green, station agent at Otho, a town on the Minneapolis and St. Louis railway, a few miles north of Fort Dodge, through confusing orders sent out a gravel train to meet a fast freight coming from the north. When he discovered that a collision was inevitable, Green lost his reason and became violently insane, being prevented from self-destruction only by those around him. It is feared his reason is permanently impaired.

Green received orders to let the gravel train go on to pass the freight at Fort Dodge, but later orders notified him that they would pass at Otho. By mistake he gave the first orders to the gravel train, which had gone too far to be recalled before he noticed his blunder. He wired Fort Dodge, but the freight had already left. Then his mind snapped under the strain.

The trains came together on a heavy grade, but the crews jumped and escaped injury. The engines were badly smashed, but aside from this the damage was slight.

STOLE THE GUNS.

Spanish Cannon at Santiago de Cuba Taken by Thieves.

Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 14.—Several days ago it was discovered that the two modern 6-inch Spanish guns comprising the Punta Gorda battery, which commands the entrance to the harbor of Santiago, were missing. This battery and the guns of the Sapia battery were the only modern cannon employed by the Spanish against the United States warships, with the exception of those landed from the Spanish cruisers. During the day the harbor police discovered the guns, which had been carried to a forest on the other side of the bay and been broken by explosives, ready for shipment as old metal.

Several Spanish ships had been searched by the police, who had expected to discover that the guns were being shipped by the Spaniards to Spain. The sentries guarding them were removed six months ago. It was considered impossible to carry off the guns and there was no fear of malicious destruction. The thieves are now in jail.

RAILROAD TRAFFIC HINDERED.

Much Damage From High Water Reported in Tennessee.

Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 14.—Reports of damage by the excessive rains of the past two days are coming in. All freight trains east of Knoxville on the Southern railway have been annulled and passenger trains can barely get through on the main line because of water covering the tracks in many places. Every dangerous point is patrolled and carefully watched. Serious washouts are reported on the Knoxville and Ohio road. A special from Bristol says three trestles have been washed away on the Virginia and Southeastern road and much track torn away. The Clinch river is higher than in six years. A big coke plant at Stonega is reported destroyed.

SAVED BY LIGHTNING.

Little Girl in Kansas Narrowly Escapes Being Buried Alive.

Larned, Kan., Aug. 14.—The 5-year-old daughter of Samuel McPrease of Hanston, 20 miles from Larned, apparently died Sunday morning. Funeral services were held during the day. On the way to the graveyard a bolt of lightning struck the metallic coffin and opened it, whereupon the child sat up and called for her mother. The horses were knocked down, but no other damage was done. The little girl is in a fair way to recover. It is believed she was in a cataleptic state, from which the lightning shock aroused her.

Bolivian Congress Convenes.

La Paz, Bolivia, Aug. 14.—President Pando, in a message to his newly convened Bolivian congress, says the government is resolved to maintain and consolidate friendly relations with all countries, especially Peru. He describes the condition of Bolivia as calm and urges congress to conduct its deliberations in the spirit of moderation.

MR. BALFOUR SCORED.

Conservative Leader Blamed for Concessions Made to Nationalists.
London, Aug. 14.—The house of commons passed the factories bill to a third reading after a heated debate, which arose out of the action of the government in withdrawing a clause including laundries within the scope of the bill, because the Nationalists strongly objected to official inspection of the Catholic conventual laundries on the ground that such inspection would be subversive of the discipline it is necessary to maintain in reformatory laundries conducted by nuns for fallen women.
Mr. Ritchie, the home secretary, and Mr. Balfour frankly admitted that this concession was necessary; but many of the supporters of the government hotly denounced it as a surrender to Irish obstruction.
The Conservative papers are angry at what they describe as a "cowardly surrender" and "melancholy weakness." They attribute the result of Mr. Balfour's mismanagement of the house to driving important contentious business into the last days of the session.

BIG BOOM AT LAWTON.

Receipts From Auction Sales of Town Lots Will Exceed $500,000.
Lawton, O. T., Aug. 14.—The indications are that the receipts from the auction sale of town lots now under direction of the federal government will exceed $500,000 in Lawton. This is more than twice the estimate of the most enthusiastic boomer of the reservation. One 25-foot lot here sold during the day for $140 a front foot and the average for the day was about $55 a front foot. Two wholesale grocery companies will begin the erection of buildings at once. Two more private banks have been established, making a total of four for the town.
The land office officials here will not attempt to settle the complications that are expected to grow out of the mineral excitement, although it is generally conceded that the wholesale filing of mineral claims is a mere subterfuge that will not stand. The issues will pass directly to the officials in Washington.

Electricity in Peking.

This use of electricity would do a good deal to abolish night crimes just as the introduction of gas street lighting did in London, England. The Universal Gazette tells us that the firm of Mandi & Co. of Tien-tsin has now received the sanction of the princes and ministers to proceed with road building and electric lighting for the capital. If the Boxers had had a searchlight, it would have been worse for the legations during the siege. So we need, says the Shanghai Mercury, not be sorry that electric lighting has been delayed so long.

SHOELESS SOCIETY NOW

Fashionable Women Promenade London Parks in Sandals.

HIGH REVELING OF SHAPELY FEET

Physicians in Chicago Express Their Views on the Innovation—Most of Them Consider It Thoroughly in Accord With Health—One Has Grave Doubts, However.

If one's toes are pink and shapely and the curves of one's foot are graceful and alluring, it is no offense against modesty, hygiene or the artistic proprieties to appear in public sans shoes and sans stockings, as society women are doing in England, according to a recent cable dispatch.
At least many of the good doctors of Chicago say it isn't, and they are as well qualified to pass judgment on a question of pedal ethics as any set of men and women in the universe, says the Chicago Post. Almost to a unit, chiropodists included, they stand for the sandal for women provided always that the innovation is confined to those feet which, undisfigured by unsightly apertures, are things of beauty and joys forever.

Through the restless waters of the broad Atlantic there hurried this panting piece of news:

London, Aug. 3.—The latest seaside fad is the wearing of sandals by grown persons. Many girls seem to be especially taken with the new idea. The sandals are generally worn without stockings. The craze has spread even to London, where well dressed women can be seen sandaled in the park.

With the receipt in America of this interesting intelligence three questions thrust themselves forward demanding to be answered. First, would the exposure attendant upon the adoption of the custom be physically injurious? Second, would the frank exploitation of the pedal extremities in a state of semimodesty be a breach of the rules and regulations hedging modesty in dress? Third, is the undraped human foot, taken as a general thing, sufficiently pulchritudinous to be classified with the objects pleasing to the eye?

To some of these queries, not all of them, the physicians of Chicago hastened to reply.

Quoth Dr. E. Fletcher Ingram: "My sanction of a custom like that of sandal wearing for women depends greatly upon the women. If they have good looking feet, the sandal habit meets my approval. If their feet are not good looking, I should frown upon the innovation, and do my best to stifle it in its incipency."

Dr. C. Pruyn Stringfield also qualified his commendation by the proviso that there must be contours and warm tinted cuticle visible between the sandal straps.

"Provided the sandals made the proper sort of disclosures I have no objection to the abandonment of boots and stockings by women in temperate climates," he said. "In fact, I think it is a good thing. We should be much healthier and better if we came into closer contact with Mother Earth. Scoldom do we of the cities touch the black soil, and then only with shoes on. When I was in general practice, I compared the healthy brown boys playing in bare feet over in the open territory west of State street with the thin, hot-house little chaps in the fashionable districts farther east, and I attribute the difference to the bare feet. I believe we should be better without shoes."

Dr. Sarah Hackett Stevenson, whose knowledge of the feminine foot is, for obvious reasons, more perfect, not to say more extensive, than that of her brother physicians, sanctions the sandal for women in a manner definite and unqualified. She scorns the skepticism concerning the physical beauty of the toes of her sex and says this:

"Of course the sandal for women is an institution to be commended. Can you imagine anything pleasanter than to doff shoes and stockings on a hot day to go walking over a grass carpeted lawn with nothing on your feet save sandals? Of course you can't. Shoes and stockings cause a great deal of ill health, I think."

Possibly it is the openwork hostility fad that has led Dr. Sanger Brown to have grave doubts concerning the pink possibilities of the female foot. At any rate he side stepped all propositions except that of health and condemned the sandal craze as hygienically unwise.

"I don't want to discuss anything but the health question," said he, "and about that I will say that I think society women who expose themselves by wearing sandals are exceedingly unwise. In a climate like that of London persons in good health who are out of doors a great deal might divest themselves of shoes and stockings without harmful consequences, but for society women the practice is dangerous."

Dr. Ellen Hancock Lyon likens the sandal to the short skirt and asserts that when sanctioned by custom it will be considered not a whit more immoral. Besides this, Dr. Lyon has great faith in the health producing qualities of the bare foot and also of its power to please when revealed through the openwork of a sandal.

"The custom should be encouraged," Dr. Lyon said, "because it means better health. Shoes and stockings cause a great deal of the nervous troubles and poor circulation common among women today. We are trying it among children with extraordinary success, and I have three healthy boys to prove what the barefoot habit can do."

"So far as the moral aspect is concerned, it is only a matter of custom. At first overdecorated and conspicuous sandals might make them offensive, but in time that would be overcome. My commendation of the sandal is unequalled."

WERE SOON CAPTURED.

Texas Train Robbers Are Rounded Up in Short Order.

Fort Worth, Tex., Aug. 14.—The southbound Missouri, Kansas and Texas train No. 3, due here at 6:30 a. m., was robbed at Caney Switch, at 1:05 a. m., by masked men. The express car was blown open, the safe wrecked and the mail car entered and all the mail considered valuable taken. All the passengers were robbed of their money. The robbers secured but little in the express car but got about $400 from the passengers. After holding the train two hours the robbers left, going east into the dense bottom timber.

The trainmen cut out the wrecked express car and ran down to Caney Station and advised officers up and down the road. Within two hours posses of United States marshals, with bloodhounds, were on the trail. The bloodhounds trailed the robbers to their homes. Their names are E. C. Richmond, Bob Alford, George Brown, John Gibson, Tom Edwards and Jack Barr. The men were given a hearing in Commissioner Ball's court at Atoka and their bonds fixed at $5,000 in each case. They could not give the bond and were remanded to jail. There were two men connected with the robbery who rode away on horseback and they have not been captured.

AGENT LOSES HIS REASON.

His Blunder Causes a Collision Near Otho, Ia.

Fort Dodge, Ia., Aug. 14.—James Green, station agent at Otho, a town on the Minneapolis and St. Louis railway, a few miles north of Fort Dodge, through confusing orders sent out a gravel train to meet a fast freight coming from the north. When he discovered that a collision was inevitable, Green lost his reason and became violently insane, being prevented from self-destruction only by those around him. It is feared his reason is permanently impaired.

Green received orders to let the gravel train go on to pass the freight at Fort Dodge, but later orders notified him that they would pass at Otho. By mistake he gave the first orders to the gravel train, which had gone too far to be recalled before he noticed his blunder. He wired Fort Dodge, but the freight had already left. Then his mind snapped under the strain.

The trains came together on a heavy grade, but the crews jumped and escaped injury. The engines were badly smashed, but aside from this the damage was slight.

STOLE THE GUNS.

Spanish Cannon at Santiago de Cuba Taken by Thieves.

Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 14.—Several days ago it was discovered that the two modern 6-inch Spanish guns comprising the Punta Gorda battery, which commands the entrance to the harbor of Santiago, were missing. This battery and the guns of the Sapia battery were the only modern cannon employed by the Spanish against the United States warships, with the exception of those landed from the Spanish cruisers. During the day the harbor police discovered the guns, which had been carried to a forest on the other side of the bay and been broken by explosives, ready for shipment as old metal.

Several Spanish ships had been searched by the police, who had expected to discover that the guns were being shipped by the Spaniards to Spain. The sentries guarding them were removed six months ago. It was considered impossible to carry off the guns and there was no fear of malicious destruction. The thieves are now in jail.

Every dangerous point is patrolled and carefully watched. Serious washouts are reported on the Knoxville and Ohio road.
